Beavers

Beaver Leader (Badger): Leigh Dance
01264 811074
Meetings term time on Wednesdays at 5:15-6:30pm

Beavers are usually aged between five and three quarters and eight years old,

Joining

Earlier entry at five and a half is at the Beaver Scout Leader's discretion (for example, to allow someone a little bit younger to join at the same time as their friends). Is this case the parent would have to stay for the meetings until the child is five and three quarters.

Structure

A group of Beaver Scouts is called a Colony, and each Colony can be split up into smaller groups called Lodges.

Beavers have a Promise and Motto, but there is not a Beaver Scout Law. The concepts of the Scout Law are presented to Beavers through games, storytelling and other informal devices.

The Beaver Scout Promise

I promise to do my best
To be kind and helpful
And to love God.

The Beaver Scout Motto

Be prepared

Uniform

Beaver Scouts wear a turquoise sweatshirt with a Group scarf (often called a necker) and a coloured woggle which identifies their Lodge or team.

Flag

The Beaver Scout flag is light blue, bearing the Scout symbol and the Scout Motto, be prepared

Beaver Scout badges and awards

There is a range of badges and awards available to young people in the Beaver Scout Section.

Activity badges

Many of the badges available are activity badges, which allow Beaver Scouts to show their progress in existing pursuits, but also to try all kinds of new things and form new interests.

Challenge badges

Gaining a challenge badge involves accomplishing a number of more ambitious tasks within the Colony or community. There are several challenge badges across a number of themes, from the physical and outdoorsy to challenges dealing with the local community or issues connected with the Scouting world.

Core badges

In addition, there are a number of core badges, obtained upon joining or moving on from the Colony, or for time spent in the Scouting movement.

Beaver Scout Logbook

Taking its readers on a magical journey along the riverbank, the Logbook is the perfect companion for every Beaver Scout.

On the way, Beaver Scouts can find out:

- how to become a Beaver Scout
- what badges they can earn
- what activities to try

Full of games and puzzles, beautifully illustrated, and with plenty of space to write and draw, the book is designed for the early reader. Available on line from www.scoutshops.com
