visity it as soon as I can.

I hope you & yours are all well. I wonder whether you & Mrs Mallett will ever come across. If so we shall be delighted for you to make ours your head quarters. If I ever go to Canada I shall look you up. Have a great many invitations to pay

TELEPHONE No. 152.

RAINBOW WOOD,
BATH.

7 Oct 1919

Dear Mrs Mallett,

My wife had your nice letter some time ago. I am writing now to forward you the photograph of your Ray's resting place. They have been all this time completing it. I shall take an opportunity of Montreal clients of ours but does not like the sea & finds my self always full of glamour of Marshall (as soon as he can spell it) is one of the banners this side. Your daughter

(as soon as he can spell it) is one of the banners this side. Your daughter to are sure to come & stay with us. We all like so much that I hasten to tell you that I shall expect him to send me that family tree he has promised.

very extraordinary like each other there is a very strong likeness specially between the two sons. Please give our kindest regards to your husband & tell him I

With love. My wife is not here

Yours very truly and sincerely

Walter Mallett